

Attention MSIS and MST Students Recruitment Visit

You are invited to meet with Mr. James Hart, Senior Vice President, Burwood Group, who is soliciting applications for the following vacant positions:

- * Converged communications consultants - responsible for designing and implementing IP telephony, unified messaging and IP call center solutions for clients
- * Security consultants - responsible for policy development, design and implementation of firewalls, intrusion detection, network/host intrusion prevention, forensics, strong authentications platforms and security management tools
- * Network consultants

All positions are part of our consulting services practice that provides solutions for medium to large size clients.

For information about Burwood Group, see <http://www.burwood.com/>.

Wednesday, September 29, 2004, Room 503 of the IS Building

5:00 - 7:00pm
Pizza will be served
(business casual dress)

Don't forget to bring your resume!

After reviewing resumes, Mr. Hart will be contacting individuals to interview on Thursday, September 30, 2004

Beginning at 9:00am, Room 743 of the IS Building

Mr. Hart is a Pitt MST alumnus that graduated in 1991 from the School of Information Sciences